3. Details of the Child

• Malki Umayangana is a 13 year's old girl and she is the eldest child in a family of two children. She has one younger brother. • Malki's mother passed away 5 years back. Later, her father remarried and left the children with the grandmother. • Father does not take any responsibility for the children as he has a new family. • During the Covid pandemic, schools were closed and all school education was done by online classes. As the child was frequently using the mobile phone for education, she was using social media and have involved with a person who is much older than her. • She left the home secretly with this person and got caught by the police when she was roaming with this person in a different city. • She was handed over to the Probation Department and the court has given the order to enter her to a child Development Center. • Therefore, the Department of Probation and Child care transferred the child to the Children Corner Orphanage in December 2021 for better Education, Protection and well-being. • Malki continues her studies staying at Children's Corner Orphanage. She is in grade 09 studying at Weragoda Wijayaba College
